

Press release: February 2018

Announcing SEHTA as a Media Partner at 2018 The Digital Healthcare Show

SEHTA is proud to announce that we are now Media Partners for The Digital Healthcare Show taking place on 27 – 28 June 2018 at ExCeL, London.

Dr David Parry, CEO at SEHTA will be speaking at the event on the panel 'Deployment of new technology within the NHS'.

The Digital Healthcare Show sits at the heart of Health+Care, the largest integrated healthcare event in the UK. In June 2017 we welcomed 5901 healthcare professionals who came together under one roof to find practical solutions to put their transformation plans into action and drive digitally enabled care.

Digital Healthcare joins the dots between innovation and practicality, presenting the latest healthcare technologies and showcasing their practical application and integration into existing healthcare infrastructure.

- Share innovation and take away practical solutions to implement in your digital strategy and put your digital transformation plans into action
- Hear from over 400 speakers who will be delivering the latest updates in digital healthcare, our world class conference programme is created for healthcare professionals, by healthcare professionals
- Enjoy unparalleled networking opportunities with sector leaders, peers, colleagues and old friends
- Witness the latest technology and solutions from over 470 world-class suppliers

The event offers shared learning opportunities for the full healthcare decision making team. Sessions will address the key challenges you face on a daily basis and will provide solutions to help change and develop your technology plans.

Visit us at digitalhealthcareshow.com and join us 27-28 June 2018 at ExCeL London to witness the latest innovations for you and your team to take away tangible solutions and implement them into your digital strategy.
